

November 17, 2009 06:01 AM Pacific Time

Phone Power Adds Free International Calling to Award Winning VOIP Phone Service

- 60 minutes of free calling per month to 88 countries like Mexico, China, India, and most of Europe
- Unlimited calling plans as low as $14.95 per month, no setup fees

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Today Phone Power is proud to announce that their award winning VOIP phone service is now offering 60 minutes of free international calling to 88 countries every month, including major calling destinations like Mexico, China, India, and most of Europe. This program extends to all new and existing customers on current residential and business plans. Existing customers will not need to do anything to activate this feature.

Phone Power offers unlimited local and long distance calling starting at $14.95 per month. For a complete list of countries served by this promo, or to check out the lowest rates to the rest of the world, visit <http://www.phonepower.com/services/voip/international.aspx>. Phone Power can be purchased through major retailers like Best Buy or at www.PhonePower.com.

About Phone Power

Phone Power is a next-generation telecommunications company, headquartered in Los Angeles, California. A privately-owned company founded in 2005, they provide telecommunications service to the continental US, and Canada. All customer service is based in the USA. Phone Power customers range from single-line residential service all the way to corporate call centers. For more information about Phone Power, visit www.PhonePower.com.

Contacts

Media Contact:
Phone Power
Nicholas Fiorina
888-607-6937 x4425
media@phonepower.com

Permalink: <http://www.businesswire.com/news/home/20091117005438/en>

